2026/2027

You can use the annual planner below to help guide you with any Daily Mile planning for the academic year 2026/27. Further details, dates and associated resources will be shared with you in advance of any campaign or challenge.

the Daily Mile Foundation

Autumn Term

August/September 2026

- Back to School: Start the new school year with lots of NEW Daily Mile resources designed to support daily movement, wellbeing and classroom engagement throughout the term.

Friday 4 December 2026

- The Daily Mile Santa Dash: A fun, festive challenge to get the whole school moving together and celebrating daily movement in the lead up to the holidays.

Spring Term

January 2027

- Back to School: Keep the momentum going with themed Daily Mile activities and classroom links to wellbeing and physical activity.

February 2027

- Children's Mental Health Week: The Daily Mile will continue to support schools with resources and activities focused on the link between movement, wellbeing and children's mental health. providing daily physical activity to improve the health and wellbeing of children.

Summer Term

March to May 2027

- Take part in the TCS Mini London Marathon in Schools: A nationwide opportunity to celebrate movement and achievement with your pupils.
- Jamie Oliver: Linking healthy eating and physical activity, we will once again be encouraging schools to apply for Jamie Oliver's Good School Food Awards.

Summer Term 2027

- Summer Campaigns and Challenges: We will be sharing exciting themed activities, resources and campaign opportunities to help schools keep children moving and engaged throughout the summer term. More details to be confirmed.

Join thousands of schools, all over the world, already taking part. Help your children feel healthier, happier and create lifelong healthier habits.

thedailymile.co.uk

Use the # Tag @TheDailyMile