The Daily Mile
Santa Run

Dear pupils and teachers,

Ho Ho Ho! A jolly greeting from The North Pole!

According to my elves, you are a Daily Mile school or nursery setting! It is so important to look after your physical and mental wellbeing, especially during this very busy and exciting time of year! Well done to you!

I've got a special challenge just for you: The Daily Mile Santa Run! On Friday 6th December, turn your Daily Mile into the merriest event of the season. The elves and I will be doing our Daily Mile around the NorthPole, and we want you to join in the fun too!

To make it extra festive, why not make your very own festive headband to wear on your Daily Mile Santa Run. Get creative and use the resources to make something fun.

The elves and I are already jingling with excitement, and we can't wait to see you all joining in! Just don't forget to share your festive fun on social media so I can see all your amazing Daily Mile Santa Runs.

Season's greetings and Ho Ho Ho,

From

Prepare for your Daily Mile Santa Run! Create a fun, festive headband to wear during your Daily Mile Santa Run:

You will need

- Printed headband templates (choose from the 2 options).
- Scissors
- Stapler/glue/tape
- Decorating materials (pencils, pens, craft materials). Ensure adult supervision when using scissors.

Instructions

1. Print the chosen headband template page for each participating pupil & adult.
2. Get creative! Decorate your festive themed headband.
3. Cut out around template pieces and attach at either end to fit head (an adult or friend can help with this part).
4. Wear your festive headband during your Daily Mile Santa Run!

We love to see our Daily Mile community in action and encourage you to share photos and stories across social media channels! Please ensure you have consent to post.
